

Criteria of Qualified Shareholders

- The company chooses shareholders for visiting factories randomly by drawing lots.
- As there are many shareholders, the company will put those who have never visited any of our factories first as a priority.
- Shareholders traveling by transportation prepared by the company must be those whose names are on the list announced by the company.
- The company will not allow shareholders to bring their children to factories due to strict safety regulations.
- The company will not allow shareholders to bring their families or any other followers to factories regardless of any reason.
