Biography

Shubhankar Sharma, professional golfer

Born in Jhansi, India in 1996, Shubhankar Sharma, ranked No.1 on the Indian tour, began golfing when he was 10 years old. His professional career started early when he was 16. He was one of the youngest players who won Indian Open Amateur Championship. He went on to win his first Pro Title on the Indian Tour at the age of 17. When he was 19, Shubhankar played in his rookie year on the Asian Tour and was already a multiple winner on the PGTI. This year, he finished a creditable 3rd in the Bangladesh Open 2016, an Asian Tour Event.

Shubhankar is currently studying Political Science (honours) from Delhi University. However, seeing Tiger Woods and Novak Djokovic as role models,

Shubhankar's highest aim is to be the world-best in the sport that he loves. His inspirational and motivational saying from the Rocky movie series is, "It is not how hard you hit but how hard you can get hit and keep moving forward."

IVL would like to invite you to support this potential golfer by follow the tournaments in which Shubhankar plays. See below the schedule of the Asian Tour 2016.
